Platinum Apple Award

for Excellence in Education

Nominations are due in the UTLA office no later than Friday, February 26th, 2027 at 4:00 p.m.

Nomination form can be found on the UTLA website.

Each UTLA chapter may submit a nomination for this great award, which is given to our own, by our own for excellence in education. Your school should hold a nomination meeting to select your nominee. Nominees must be current UTLA members from any of the UTLA represented categories of educators including teachers, coordinators substitutes and health and human services professionals. All members are encouraged to participate in the nominee selection and application process. Honorees will be recognized on Saturday, May 22, 2027.
