Ruben Salazar Scholarship — 2026-27 Application Guidelines

Submit a video no longer than 5 minutes that includes:

1️⃣ Understanding of Ruben Salazar's Legacy

- Who was Ruben Salazar? What was his work as a journalist?
- What happened during the Chicano Moratorium?

2️⃣ Impact on Your Community Today

- How does his legacy still matter?
- What issues Salazar fought for are present now?

3️⃣ Personal Story & Current Advocacy

- Share a meaningful moment that connects you to Salazar's fight for truth and representation.
- How are you contributing to your school, family, or community?

4️⃣ Future Commitment

- How will you continue his legacy in college and your career?

5️⃣ Authenticity & Verification

Your submission must include:

✅ You speaking directly in the video .mp4 (your voice and/or face visible for part of the video)

✅ A 150–200 word written reflection submitted separately:

"Why is Ruben Salazar's story personally meaningful to you, and how did you approach creating this project?"

✅ Any creative featured content must be your original work

✅ Signed originality statement (form provided)

📌 Deadline: Friday, January 29, 2027 at 5:00pm

📌 Submission Link or Method: _____